Luke 10: 38-42

When you understand who Jesus is,
you prioritize sitting at His feet

1. Jesus valued women and invited them to follow Him

Luke 10:38-39

Acts 22:3

Women weren't allowed that kind of access to rabbis and weren't afforded the option of being "disciples" in any context.

2. You question Jesus' care when you're pursuing your own agenda rather than His

1 Peter 5:7

Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

Who's in your home, Martha?

You don't make the decision to follow Jesus and then expect Him to follow you.

3. Jesus knows that being with Him is what we need most

Luke 10:41-42

1 Peter 5:7

Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

Jesus is not only who I need the most, but who the people in my relational world need the most.

John 12:1-3

Now What?

When you understand who Jesus is,
you prioritize sitting at His feet

Week of March 11

More Than a Meal #3 – Prioritize Sitting at Jesus' Feet

Home Groups are a place to do life and mission together. They meet in many places in our area. You can join one at www.trinityonline.org.

Share It

What is something that can totally absorb you? Can this sometimes cause you to miss more important things?

Study the Bible

Read the following verses about 'how to prioritize one's life.'

Matthew 5:6

Matthew 6:24-25, 33

Mark 8:36-37

Luke 12:34

Acts 20:24

Ephesians 5:15-16

Read what Jesus taught in Luke 10:38-42. What stands out to you?

Discuss Together

What stood out to you in the scriptures above? What matters more?

What kinds of things distract us? What do we want from these?

What helps us keep our highest priorities? How can we help one another?

How might this help us be rooted in Jesus and reach our worlds?

Pray

- Pray about people you want to invite to Easter services
- Pray for our Mexico team (March 22-25)
- Pray for Micah House kids and workers

Apply It This Week

Pick a time this week when you can just 'sit and listen at the Lord's feet.' Share your experience with your group.
